

The number one independent source of news and events from the Principality of Monaco

Monaco Life Business Leaders' Lunch
Nigel Farage
Leader of British UKIP
"The EU will not survive"
Tuesday, January 22, 10am noon - Hotel Fairmont Monte-Carlo - 3-course lunch with welcome drink - 115 euros. 0299 8118-916. monacolife@gmail.com

Subscribe to our PREMIUM service
- get Monaco Today early each day with
ALL our news from Monaco
INFO click on
MONACO TODAY!

MONACO life

Monday November 26, 2012 13:04

THE WORLD'S WINDOW ON MONACO

Wealth and Investment Management

Find out more

BARCLAYS

Wednesday, 7 November 2012 8:30 | Author: Ian Brodie

MonacoUSA stays up all night for Obama win

MonacoUSA's all-night presidential election party proved a big hit with voters, thanks to the energy of its organisers, the upbeat American music and the direct input of the Riviera's one and only Fat Cat. The Star Deck of Stars'n'Bars provided the perfect setting for a great party as the early results trickled in and the world awoke to the news that America's new leader will be Barack Obama for four more years.

PHOTO: Jennie Dallery of the American Club of the Riviera, 'Barack Obama,' 'Mitt Romney,' and MonacoUSA's Annette Anderson. Ian Brodie

The number one independent source of news and events from the Principality of Monaco

Monaco Life Business Leaders' Lunch
Nigel Farage
Leader of British UKIP
"The EU will not survive"
Tuesday, January 23, 6.00pm - Hotel Fairmont Monte-Carlo - 3-course lunch with welcome drink - 115 euros. 0333 8111 919. monacolife@gmail.com

Subscribe to our PREMIUM service
- get Monaco Today early each day with
ALL our news from Monaco
FREE click on
MONACO TODAY!

MONACO life

Monday November 26, 2012 13:04

THE WORLD'S WINDOW ON MONACO

Wealth and Investment Management

Find out more

BARCLAYS

Friday, 23 November 2012 7:43 | Author: Ian Brodie

Americans celebrate Thanksgiving in Salle Empire style

The American Club of the Riviera held its annual Thanksgiving Dinner yesterday in the splendid surroundings of the Salle Empire of the Hotel de Paris. In addition to American residents from the length of the Riviera, those attending included several serving members of the U.S. Air Force based at Camp Darby in northern Italy.

PHOTO: American Club of the Riviera President Jennie Dallery with members of the U.S Air Force based in Italy Ian Brodie

Visit Monaco

11,144 likes · 1,232 talking about this

Liked

Government Organization
Official Facebook page of the Monaco Government
Tourist Office in North America

Photos

Events

MONACO TRAVEL...

Videos

2

About

Visit Monaco
November 21

With this beautiful photo of Salle Empire at the Hôtel de Paris Monte-Carlo we wish all our American friends a very happy Thanksgiving!

(photo by <http://theprovencepost.blogspot.com/2012/10/youre-invited-thanksgiving-in-monaco-aix.html>)

The The American Club of the Riviera and STARS'N'BARS in Monaco offer different options for Thanksgiving activities in the Principality tomorrow.

Like · Comment · Share

42

QuickTime™ and a decompressor
are needed to see this picture.

QuickTime™ and a
decompressor
are needed to see this picture.

Gustia

A Canadian vegetarian foodie moves to Monaco and travels all over the place. Wherever I go, there I blog.

Home

About your Hostess

My Cakes

Giving

To Market, To Market...

My Vintage Dinner

SATURDAY, 24 NOVEMBER 2012

Thanksgiving, Monaco Style

ALL ABOUT

Gustia

I'm Jennifer and I'm a Canadian vegetarian foodie but I live in Monaco. Why? Because the food's better and there's no snow but at times I wonder...

• I'd describe my cooking style as "refined vegetarian peasant." • I'm also an ardent rescuer of vintage housewares. I think I may have been reincarnated from a 1950's housewife. • I travel a lot to do foodie things. • All hail Hubby who finances my shenanigans, culinary and otherwise. • Wherever I go, there I blog.

View my complete profile

TRANSLATE GUSTIA!

Select Language ▼

POSTS BY CATEGORY

Bread \(1\)

Cakes \(5\)

Desserts \(12\)

When I heard that the American Club of the Riviera would be hosting its Annual Thanksgiving lunch in the Salle Empire in the Hotel de Paris, I thought it would be the coolest gig in town.

As luck would have it, my American foodie friend Scotty would be in Monaco for Thanksgiving so I saw it as a sign and snagged seats at the lunch for Hubby, Scotty and I. Just to be on the safe side, I brushed up on the words to the Star Spangled Banner.

I seek out any opportunity I can to visit the magnificent Salle Empire even if it means just sticking my head in to take a look when it's empty. With its luminescent gilt trim, 6 metre high ceilings, and frescoes of naked and bare breasted women cavorting with various creatures, the décor is much more theatrical than its subdued neighbour, the 3-Michelin Star restaurant, Le Louis XV.

Carved potiron squash

Funny thing is, I'm not American, and I don't eat meat so you think I'd feel out of place at a traditional Thanksgiving meal but I didn't. I felt very much at home and welcomed, and we ate quite well considering that we were the first two people to have ever requested a vegetarian meal for the Club's Thanksgiving lunch.

Even though the Salle Empire is about as far as one can get from the modest first Thanksgiving in Plymouth, the sentiment was one of sharing, creating new friendships, and giving thanks.

I'm just hoping that at next year's lunch there'll be pumpkin pie.

